

SECOND BOYRES

Areas of Study

What are your biggest fears for the future?

- "Being away from my parents and stress." -Rand Wilson
- "Not seeing any of my friends from here again." -Dylan Foster
- "Having a boring job when I graduate college." -Nathan Hawkinsworth
- "Being homesick." -Emily Cassidy
- "Not having the motivation to do work." -Dan Charbonneau
- "Not being able to fit in with the people at my school." -Emily Erickson
- "Getting lost on campus the first day class starts." -Bernard Dramo
- "Getting a bad reputation." -Michael Lopez

WHERE ARE YOU HEADING AFTER HIGH SCHOOL?

Which staff member has had the greatest impact on your life?

- "Coach West pushed me to the best of my ability." -Greg Cahman
- "Mr. Horwitz always made class fun and gave me the motivation to want to learn. Plus, he was always there if I needed to talk." -Genavee Fricke

- "Ms. E was always trying to make me a better musician, and she was the best." -Isabel Morales
- "Madame Welty was a great teacher that not only pushed you to your best but helped you at your worst." -Cecilia Alvarez
- "Ms. Selle always pushed me, and I felt I had the strongest connection." -Lindsey Allen
- "Mrs. Smith's enthusiasm really motivates me, and I admire how passionate she is. I know that she believes in me." -Danielle Schaefer

How was the transition between freshman year to senior year?

"A lot changed. My decisions with what was the most important to me changed, and it taught me to be independent and grounded in who I am as a person." -Nathan Welkberg

"I have become more confident and open. I made good friends that I will always keep." -Shannon O'Brien

"Before high school I thought that I could not be a successful student and didn't have a whole idea of my life. Now I am happy where I am. I have the courage to stand up for myself." -Drew Lauer

"I have better friends and goals. I am way less immature, and I understand what is important in my future." -Zach Blake

"I have become more confident in who I have become and who I want to be." -Alii Dameron

"I grew up. I got myself in gear and really sorted out my priorities and buckled down." -Sherrin Jensen